Notice of Privacy Practices

Effective Date: October 4, 2026. Last Updated: October 4, 2026.

This Notice Describes How Medical Information About You May Be Used and Disclosed and How You Can Get Access to This Information

Please review it carefully.

Who We Are

Contrapposto is Contrapposto LLC, an S Corporation that operates and collects revenue on behalf of Dynamic Aesthetics Group, A Medical Corporation. We share a common HIPAA-covered healthcare operation at 822 N La Cienega Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90069, and we treat this notice as covering all use and disclosure of your protected health information by either entity and by our clinical team.

Our Pledge Regarding Health Information

We understand that medical information about you is personal. We are committed to protecting medical information about you, which in this notice we call "protected health information" or "PHI." This notice applies to all records of your care generated at Contrapposto.

Our Legal Duties

We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your protected health information, to give you this notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to that information, and to notify you if a breach of your unsecured protected health information occurs. We are required to follow the terms of the notice currently in effect. We will not use or share your information other than as described in this notice unless you tell us in writing that we can.

How We May Use and Disclose Health Information About You

The following describes the ways we may use and disclose medical information about you for treatment, payment, healthcare operations, and certain other purposes permitted or required by law, without your written authorization.

For Treatment

We use and disclose medical information about you to provide you with medical treatment or services. For example, a nurse may review your previous treatment notes before performing a new injectable treatment, and our providers share information with each other about your treatment plan.

For Payment

We use and disclose medical information to obtain payment for the services you receive. Contrapposto is a cash-pay practice and does not bill insurance; payment information is processed through our payment processor and practice management systems.

For Healthcare Operations

We use and disclose medical information for our internal operations, for example, to conduct quality-improvement review of clinical outcomes, to train our staff, to evaluate the performance of our providers, to coordinate business planning, and to manage our legal and compliance programs.

Other Uses and Disclosures Permitted Without Authorization

- As required by law (for example, reporting certain communicable diseases, suspected abuse, or adverse events involving FDA-regulated products).
- To avert a serious threat to health or safety.
- For public health activities, health oversight, judicial and administrative proceedings, law enforcement when required by law, and to coroners or funeral directors.
- To business associates who perform services for us under written contracts that require them to protect your information (for example, TouchMD, Nextech, Weave, Google Workspace). A list of our current business associates is available on request.
- To the Secretary of Health and Human Services for compliance investigation.
- For research purposes when an authorization, a waiver of authorization, or other permission under the HIPAA Privacy Rule is in place.

Uses and Disclosures That Require Your Written Authorization

- Most uses and disclosures of psychotherapy notes.
- Uses and disclosures for marketing, including social media, website posting, print advertising, and testimonial use (covered by our separate Photo Consent & Release).
- Sales of your PHI.
- Other uses and disclosures not otherwise described in this notice.

For any of these uses, we will ask you to sign a specific written authorization. You may revoke a written authorization at any time in writing; revocation takes effect prospectively.

Your Rights Regarding Medical Information About You

- Right to inspect and receive a paper or electronic copy of your records, with limited exceptions. Under California law, you may inspect your records within 5 working days, and receive copies within 15 days, after we receive your written request. Contrapposto provides copies of your records at no charge.

- Right to request amendment of information you believe is incorrect or incomplete.
- Right to request an accounting of certain disclosures we have made of your PHI.
- Right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures. We are not required to agree to most such requests; however, if you pay in full for a service out of pocket, we will not disclose information about that service to a health plan.
- Right to request confidential communications, for example, that we contact you only at a specific phone number or address.
- Right to a paper copy of this notice at any time.
- Right to be notified if there is a breach of your unsecured PHI.

California-Specific Rights

In addition to your rights under HIPAA, California's Confidentiality of Medical Information Act (Civil Code sections 56 et seq.) gives you additional protections over your medical information. California law generally requires your separate written authorization for disclosures outside of treatment, payment, and healthcare operations, and restricts the marketing uses of patient information. Contrapposto complies with both HIPAA and CMIA; in any conflict, the stricter standard applies.

Complaints

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with Contrapposto by contacting our Privacy Officer at 822 N La Cienega Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90069, or by email to booking@contrapposto.com. You may also file a complaint with the United States Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights, at <https://www.hhs.gov/ocr/> or by mail at 200 Independence Avenue SW, Room 509F HHH Building, Washington, DC 20201. We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Changes to This Notice

We may change this notice at any time. Any changes apply to PHI we already have about you as well as any information we receive in the future. If we change this notice, the new notice will be posted at the front desk and on our website, and a copy will be available to you on request.
